Swim Team Computer Operator (2 people)

You love dreamy, seemingly endless nights by the pool. You find your life is enhanced by retro technology and attention to detail. Your dominant hand has the most facile of fingers. You revel in the endless gratitude of others. Your contributions rise to the c-suite level. You are our next CCO (chief computer operator).

Table

Truly, it's in the cards that your future is bright. Your future at 'the table', that is, the highest place of prestige and honor during those most venerated of events at FSBC. Your past history of orderliness has ideally positioned you to manage the hundreds of stickers and cards in your charge. That, and your commitment to better living through luddite traditions that have proved remarkably effective.

We welcome you, Czar of the Table Realm.

Strokes and Turns Judge (Multiple people)

With social isolation, you have missed the opportunity to judge others in public. Now, you can be judgey and fulfill a crucial volunteer position. Think kids nowadays are too soft? Hate participation trophies? Come dash the butterfly swimming dreams of 7 year-olds everywhere this summer! Complementary "what doesn't kill you makes you stronger" beer koozie for the cafe if you are one of our first 5 new volunteers!

Parking Coordinator (Multiple people)

Haiku for A Hero:

Astride your asphalt domain

Job done by the start

Is blaze orange your color? Do you like to conduct just-in-time geophysical experiments on the amount of mud an overloaded minivan can park in? With this job, you can be sipping a cool one just as everyone else starts to work. Remember... you just have to park them. Unparking... that's on them.
